"LEGAL EVALUATION" WITH LOCAL BANKRUPTCY ATTORNEY

Free For Anyone Who Meets The Three Criteria Below*

If you are unable to afford minimum payments, debt settlement or credit counseling, then it's time to seriously consider bankruptcy...

Are you eligible for a free consultation with an attorney?

Because of my special relationship with Total Bankruptcy and the company's Principle and Founder Kevin Churn, I've arranged for you to receive a free consultation with a local attorney if you meet certain criteria outlined below. This is a great deal for you because you now have accountability with these attorneys AND you won't have to pay a hefty retainer just to find out if you qualify.

TotalBankruptcy is a national network of over 250 bankruptcy law firms. The use of the attorney network is for any person using the Debt Relief Guide Online who is seeking to retain a lawyer to file bankruptcy. It is not for help completing legal forms, handling a legal matter by yourself, or a free legal advice service.

We need to ask you a few questions first to decide if the TotalBankruptcy network is right for you.

 FREE IF YOU MEET THESE CRITERIA:

- 1) Do you have more than $10,000 in unsecured debt? (Answer should be "Yes")
- 2) Are you at least 60 days behind on at least three bills? (The answer should be "Yes")
- 3) Can you afford the minimum payments on these bills? (The answer should be "No")

If Your Answers Are Correct, Then You Qualify For A Free Legal Evaluation With TotalBankruptcy.

PLEASE NOTE: If the answers are the opposite for any of the questions above, then you should refer to the local bar association or to a legal services provider in your area. For the most economical "legal advice" from a licensed attorney in your area, please visit LegalAdviceLine.com
